THE FLORIDA TRADE. The Florida Central Railroad has made arrangements by which cotton can be carried from Lake City to Charleston, at extremely low rates, and the same with respect to return freights on groceries and other necessaries.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT, How. GEO. S. BRYAN PRESIDING .- On motion of J. N. Nathans, Esq., Solicitor for Hudgins, Owen & Co., Bani rupts, it was ordered that the schedule be changed in some particulars so as to admit the addition of certain names in clauses of the schedule.

MONSEIGNEUR PERSICO. - This divine, who preach ed at the Cath dral Chapel on Sunday morning last, is an Italian by birth and Bishop of a See in Central India. He remained in Hindostan during the horrors of the Indian mutiny, and has now come from Rome to this city on a visit to Bishop

ACCIDENT ON THE SOUTH CAROLINA RAILBOAD. The down passenger train from Augusta, due here yesterday morning, was detained by the running off of the up freight train at the thirty-three mile post. Three cars were thrown from the track, but no one was hurt, and the road was cleared in about two hours and a half.

PRAYER MEETING AT THE YOUNG MEN'S CHRIS-TIAN ASSOCIATION .- We are gratified to state that the meetings now being held at the Hall of Y. M. C. A. are attended by a large number of young men, and considerable interest is manifested in the subject of religion. The weekly services in the different churches will be directed especially to the young, and it is hoped that the season of prayer will not pass without some accessions to the active members of the association.

CHARLESTON BIBLE SOCIETY .- A meeting of this Society is called at the College Chapel, on Tuesday afternoon, at 4 P. M., November 12th, in accord ance with the following resolution, adopted at a meeting of the Board on the 4th inst. :

Resolved, That the Board of Managers of the Charteston Bible Society refers the question of a reunion with the American Bible Society to a meeting of the Charleston Bible Society, to be held at the College Chapel, on next Tuesday, at 4 P. M. J. N. ROBSON, Secretary.

WHO STEALS my purse steals trash, but who takes my clothes takes all I have. This was the experience of a cortain express messenger on the South Carolina Bailroad, who fell among thieves and was deprived of some of his outer raiment. The light-fingered gentry at one fell swoop took both his hat and boots, and would have carried his coat if he had not fortunately awoke in time to save it. The loss is almost irreparable, as the boots were new, but the incident will remain fresh in his memory and in future he will sleep with

A TELLING SHOT .- A colored man named Miles Cooper was brought to the Guard House yesterday morning by Jim Gare, also colored. Cooper was found near the South Carolina Passenger Depot, shot in the back, and his case being past the ken of the police, he was sent to the City Hospital, where his back will be doctored. It appears that Cooper, having a fondness for roots, went potatoe-grabbing on a farm up the road, but was unfortunately discovered and saluted with a load of small shot which wilt keep him out of potato fields for some time.

ACCIDENTS ON THE STREET RAILBOAD .- Every paper contains some account of accidents arising from the careless habit of jumping to and from the street cars while in motion, but the practice still continues, each individual thinking that though not a circus actor he is some of a leapist. It is not often that we have to chronicle accidents of this description, as our street cars are not run on the 2.40 principle, and those who desire to display their skill in leaping can generally do so with safety. Yesterday, however, the attempt to step from the cars proved, in two instances, injurious to the parties. A young man, name unknown, in jumping from a car, near the corner or King and Wentworth streets, fell and cut his face badly. In Broad street, a Mr. Jeffords was seriously hurt from the same cause, having struck his hip severely in f. lling. Dr. Michel was called in and attended to une injuries.

TRE GRAND PAGEANT .- The inspiring sound of martial music collected a large crowd to see the grand cavalcade pass through our different streets. The non-appearance of the lion caused some remarks, but, as the King of Beasts was prevented from taking a public siring on his previous visit, he remained caged yesterday. The dancing plumes and gay dresses of both riders and horses attractad considerable attention, but the principal features were evidently Little Minnie, Whos January and the Young Ele hant. The huge canvass tent was surrounded by a motley crowd of small and large boys, who made savage sorties at the walls and endeavored to obtain a surreptitious entrance. A guard of soldiers who were shortly after stationed around the tent kept the invaders at a respect. ful distance, and compelled them to restrain their curiosity until night. At the appointed hour the gates were opened, and the crowd soon filled the immense pavillion. To describe the performance would be a difficult task, as the actors were perfor in every respect, but especial praise is due Mademoiselle Pauline and Little Minnte, who acquitted then selves admirably. The collection of animals under mint a close scrutiny, and the genera impression was that Dan was a great show-man and hard to beat. He will give two more grand exhibitions, and the street parade will take place to-day, wind and weather permitting.

THE GERMAN LUTHERAN CHUNCH .- THE CON-CIBT To-LORROW NIGHT .- This corporation have already commenced operations on their lot in King street by clearing away the shrubbery which has grown uncultivated for some years, and. we learn, it is their intention to lay the corner stone of the building at an early day. The Gorand influential body. Their present church in Hasel street has been found entirely too small for a rare musical treat. The best professional and The new Hiberman Hall will be thrown open for the first time to the pathic, and the inaugural caremonies will be worthy the occasion. The music-loving citizens of Charleston will be sure to atare in such a small minority, that their absence ed, and they will at once have the extension added would not affect the cause.

TAE STEAMSHIP JAMES ADGER.—We noticed a EDUCATIONAL.—Mrs. John Laurens has now locafew days since the crival here of this well known and popular steamship. She has since been visited by many of our c tizens, who selt an interest in compet at corps of instructors. ARREST OF A MURDERER.-The murder on Wad-Preston Johnson a colored man having been refused by the girl to whom Lockwood was to have Lockwood should never marry the girl. These remarks, in connection with his absence from the city at the time of the murder, and his return on the same day aroused the suspicions of Peter Robinson, colored, and led to his arrest by the police. Coroner Whiting promptly impanneled a jury, who examined a number of witnesses yesterday. From their evidence it appeared that Preston had been absent at the time and had given a confused account of himself. The footprints correspond exactly with the length of his foot-nine and a half inches. The testimony was clear, but Coroner Whiting deemed it advisable to procure other witnesses from Rockville, and the jury was anjourned to Wednesday to await their arrival.

ARSON IN CHRIST CHURCH PARISH .- On the morning of the 4th, the residence of Mr. Knox, in Curist Church Parish, was set on fire and totally destroyed, the family barely escaping with their lives. At the request of the military, Lieuteaant Hendricks detailed officers Chapman and Gray to examine the occurrence, and, if possible, to trace the perpetrators. This was done, and four colore? persons, two men and two women, were arrested to the city in charge of the officers. These prisoners, named respectively Jno. Richardson, Jas. Thomas, Becky Green, and Amelia Canasse, were examined before Magistrate Kanapaux, together with other witnesses. The tastimony showed plainly that Jim Thomas has wilfully set the fire, Becky Green voluntarily asserting that Jim had told her that "he would be even with Mr. Knox, or and came back before daylight, waking her up and telling her to look at Mr. Knox's house burning. She asked him who set it, and he said that he had done it. The other evidence corroborated Becky's statement, as Jim had been trequently heard to make threats against Mr. Knox. Jim has been confined in jail, where he will remain until tried for his life. Arson is a crime punishable with death by the laws of this State, and the present instance showed such a diabolical spirit that we trust the law will be allowed to take its course.
